

Course Competencies

CJ 150 Laws of Arrest, Search and Seizure

Upon completion of this course, successful students will (be able to):

- Apply probable cause in criminal investigations
- Compare and contrast the distinction between custody and detainment by a police officer within the context of restricting a person's freedoms
- Identify the scope of authority to search incident to arrest and search given a permissive search
- Write a successful search warrant and affidavit
- Apply the process of the felony seizure law and drug seizure law by an officer