- Official copies of CLEP test scores need to be submitted to the Admissions/Registration office for evaluation.
- A maximum of 10 CLEP credits can applied to a distribution area on the Direct Transfer degree (DTA). There is a maximum of five credits that can be awarded in world languages.
- No more than 5 CLEP credits can be used to meet the writing skills requirement for a degree. CLEP credit will not be used for the writing requirement for advanced English composition.
- CLEP credit is awarded a "P" grade, will not effect GPA, and will not apply to WVC residency requirements.
- Depending on the amount of other PLA exam credit earned, a maximum of 30 credits can be used towards a WVC degree. For Workforce programs, PLA credit is limited to 25% of total credits required for degree.
- There is no fee for this evaluation.
